Write About The Topic

Supporting Ideas

Supporting ideas

The goal of supporting ideas

Write About
The Topic

Supporting ideas

The goal of supporting ideas

Explains why your topic sentence is correct

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

The goal of supporting ideas

Explains why your topic sentence is correct

- Giving reasons
- Giving facts
- Giving examples
- Describing

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

The goal of supporting ideas

Explains why your topic sentence is correct

- Giving reasons
- Giving facts
- Giving examples
- Describing

Remember your supporting idea should be directly related to your topic sentence.

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Example

Question: Fast food should be banned from schools. Do you agree or disagree?

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Topic sentence: I agree that children should be banned from eating fast food at school for several important reasons.

Supporting ideas:

1. Fast food is unhealthy
2. Fast food is expensive

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Topic sentence: I agree that children should be banned from eating fast food at school for several important reasons.

Supporting idea 1: First, children should not be allowed to eat fast food because it is detrimental to their health.

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Topic sentence: I agree that children should be banned from eating fast food at school for several important reasons.

Supporting idea 1: First, children should not be allowed to eat fast food because it is detrimental to their health.

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Topic sentence: I agree that children should be banned from eating fast food at school for several important reasons.

Supporting idea 1: First, children should not be allowed to eat fast food because it is detrimental to their health. For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives, which makes them extremely unhealthy especially for children.

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Topic sentence: I agree that children should be banned from eating fast food at school for several important reasons.

Supporting idea 1: First, children should not be allowed to eat fast food because it is detrimental to their health. For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives, which makes them extremely unhealthy especially for children.

Example

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Supporting idea 1: First, children should not be allowed to eat fast food because it is detrimental to their health. For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives, which makes them extremely unhealthy especially for children.

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Supporting idea 1: First, children should not be allowed to eat fast food because it is detrimental to their health. For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives, which makes them extremely unhealthy especially for children.

Supporting idea 2: In addition, schools should stop serving fast food because it is very expensive.

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Supporting idea 1: First, children should not be allowed to eat fast food because it is detrimental to their health. For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives, which makes them extremely unhealthy especially for children.

Supporting idea 2: In addition, schools should stop serving fast food because it is very expensive. It is a well-known fact that fresh food from a supermarket is significantly cheaper.

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Supporting idea 1: First, children should not be allowed to eat fast food because it is detrimental to their health. For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives, which makes them extremely unhealthy especially for children.

Supporting idea 2: In addition, schools should stop serving fast food because it is very expensive. It is a well-known fact that fresh food from a supermarket is significantly cheaper.

FACT

Write About The Topic

Supporting ideas

Supporting idea 1: First, children should not be allowed to eat fast food because it is detrimental to their health. For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives, which makes them extremely unhealthy especially for children.

Supporting idea 2: In addition, schools should stop serving fast food is because it is very expensive. It is a well-known fact that fresh food from a supermarket is significantly cheaper…

Linking Phrases

Write About The Topic

Sequencing ideas

Use when writing ideas with the same viewpoint

- first, / firstly, / first of all, / first and foremost,
- second, / secondly, / third / thirdly
- in addition, / additionally,
- furthermore,
- moreover,
- another reason is / another point to consider is
- finally, lastly (used with 3 or more points)

Write About The Topic

Sequencing ideas

Some examples

- First and foremost, eating junk food causes many illnesses.

Write About The Topic

Sequencing ideas

Some examples

- First and foremost, eating junk food causes many illnesses.

- Second, junk food is more expensive than fresh food from the supermarket.

Write About The Topic

Sequencing ideas

Some examples

- First and foremost, eating junk food causes many illnesses.

- Second, junk food is more expensive than fresh food from the supermarket.

- Additionally/Furthermore/Moreover, when children eat junk food they build bad eating habits.

Write About The Topic

Sequencing ideas

Some examples

- First and foremost, eating junk food causes many illnesses.
- Second, junk food is more expensive than fresh food from the supermarket.
- Additionally/Furthermore/Moreover, when children eat junk food they build bad eating habits.
- Another point to consider is the long term impacts junk food has on children's physical and mental health.

Write About The Topic

Sequencing ideas

Some examples

- First and foremost, eating junk food causes many illnesses.
- Second, junk food is more expensive than fresh food from the supermarket.
- Additionally/Furthermore/Moreover, when children eat junk food they build bad eating habits.
- Another point to consider is the long term impacts junk food has on children's physical and mental health.
- Finally, junk food is a leading cause of obesity.

www.detready.com

Write About The Topic

Contrasting ideas

Use when writing ideas with a different viewpoint

- however,
- on the other hand,
- that being said,
- conversely,
- in spite of, / despite,
- alternatively,
- although...,

Write About The Topic

Contrasting ideas

Some examples

- However, many children get enjoyment from eating junk food now and again.

Write About The Topic

Contrasting ideas

Some examples

- However, many children get enjoyment from eating junk food now and again.

- On the other hand, students would likely complain if schools banned junk food completely.

Write About The Topic

Contrasting ideas

Some examples

- However, many children get enjoyment from eating junk food now and again.
- On the other hand, students would likely complain if schools banned junk food completely.
- That being said, junk food is not that bad as long as students don't eat it for every meal.

Write About The Topic

Contrasting ideas

Some examples

- However, many children get enjoyment from eating junk food now and again.
- On the other hand, students would likely complain if schools banned junk food completely.
- That being said, junk food is not that bad as long as students don't eat it for every meal.
- Alternatively, schools could simply limit the amount of junk food they provide to the students.

Write About The Topic

Contrasting ideas

Some examples

- However, many children get enjoyment from eating junk food now and again.
- On the other hand, students would likely complain if schools banned junk food completely.
- That being said, junk food is not that bad as long as students don't eat it for every meal.
- Alternatively, schools could simply limit the amount of junk food they provide to the students.
- Although junk food is bad, it would be complicated to ban it completely from all schools.

Write About The Topic

Giving examples & facts

Use when introducing examples or facts

- for example,
- for instance,
- such as,
- to illustrate this point,

Write About The Topic

Giving examples & facts

Use when introducing examples or facts

- for example,
- for instance,
- such as,
- to illustrate this point,
- it is well-known that / it is a well-known fact that
- it has been proven that,
- many studies have shown that,

Write About The Topic

Giving examples & facts

Some examples

- For example / For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives.

Write About The Topic

Giving examples & facts

Some examples

- For example / For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives.

- To illustrate this point, students who eat junk food daily are more likely to suffer long-term health problems.

Write About The Topic

Giving examples & facts

Some examples

- For example / For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives.
- To illustrate this point, students who eat junk food daily are more likely to suffer long-term health problems.
- It is a well-known fact that eating junk food on a consistent basis can lead to obesity.

Write About The Topic

Giving examples & facts

Some examples

- For example / For instance, fast food burgers are packed with fat, sugar, salt, and preservatives.
- To illustrate this point, students who eat junk food daily are more likely to suffer long-term health problems.
- It is a well-known fact that eating junk food on a consistent basis can lead to obesity.
- It has been proven that / Many studies have shown that junk food can not only affect students physical health but also their mental health.