Write About The Topic

Compound Sentences

Simple Sentences

Write About
The Topic

Simple sentences

Many children play computer games.
Other children prefer to play sports.

Write About The Topic

Simple sentences

Many children play computer games.
Other children prefer to play sports.

Subject

Write About The Topic

Simple sentences

Many children play computer games.
Other children prefer to play sports.

Subject verb

Write About The Topic

Simple sentences

Many children play computer games.
Other children prefer to play sports.

Subject verb

Compound Sentences

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Many children play computer games ___ other children prefer to play sports.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Many children play computer games

___ other children prefer to play sports.

Independent clauses

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Many children play computer games ___ other children prefer to play sports.

Independent clauses

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Many children play computer games, but other children prefer to play sports.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Many children play computer games, but other children prefer to play sports.

Compound sentence

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Many children play computer games, but other children prefer to play sports.

www.detready.com

Compound sentences

- two complete ideas (independent clauses)
- linked with a coordinating conjunction

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Many children play computer games, but other children prefer to play sports.

www.detready.com

Compound sentences

- two complete ideas (independent clauses)
- linked with a coordinating conjunction

Write About
The Topic

Compound sentences

Coordinating conjunctions

FANBOYS

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Coordinating conjunctions

FANBOYS

for and nor but or yet so

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Tests

1. The internet is very important.
   The internet is widely used everywhere.

2. I couldn't finish my homework.
   I had no place to study.

3. Snack food is good sometimes.
   Snack food can be addictive.
   We must be careful.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Examples

The internet is very important, and it is widely used everywhere.

I couldn't finish my homework, for I had no place to study.

Snack food is good sometimes, but/yet it can be addictive, so we must be careful.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

1. Use a comma when the FANBOY is linking two independent clauses.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

1. Use a comma when the FANBOY is linking two independent clauses.

Easy example: Which sentence needs a comma?

1. She wore a blue dress but nothing else.
2. She wore a blue dress but she didn't wear anything else.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

1. Use a comma when the FANBOY is linking two independent clauses.

Easy example: Which sentence needs a comma?

1. She wore a blue dress but nothing else.
2. She wore a blue dress, but she didn't wear anything else.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

1. Use a comma when the FANBOY is linking two independent clauses.

Easy example: Which sentence needs a comma?

1. She wore a blue dress but nothing else.
2. She wore a blue dress, but she didn't wear anything else.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

1. Use a comma when the FANBOY is linking two independent clauses.

Easy example: Which sentence needs a comma?

1. She wore a blue dress but nothing else.
2. She wore a blue dress, but she didn't wear anything else.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

1. Use a comma when the FANBOY is linking two independent clauses.

2. When you are combining two or more nouns, you don't need a comma.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

1. Use a comma when the FANBOY is linking two independent clauses.

2. When you are combining two or more nouns, verbs or adjecetives, you don't need a comma.

Easy examples

1. I think that taxes are both good and bad.
2. After high school you can get a job or go to university.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

1. Use a comma when the FANBOY is linking two independent clauses.

2. When you are combining two or more nouns, you don't need a comma.

3. When the subject is the same, you don't need to repeat it.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

Example

1. I was tired, but I went to work early.
2. I was tired but went to work early.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

Example

1. I was tired, but I went to work early.
2. I was tired but went to work early.

No comma in number 2

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

Example

1. Smart phones are addictive, but they are essential.
2. Smart phones are addictive but essential.

Write About The Topic

Compound sentences

Rules: Coordinating conjunctions

Example

1. Smart phones are addictive, but they are essential.
2. Smart phones are addictive but essential.

No comma in number 2